INDEX FOR FEBRUARY

February 1 (Sunday)
USSR Maintains Military Units On 3 Northern Islands: Sakata (p.1)
U.S. Gov't Won't Seek More Trade With USSR (p.1)
Fire Ravages Toritenjoji Temple (p.2)
Exxon Blames Italy Political Payments on Judgment Errors (p.3)
S. Korea Drops Plan to Purchase 'N-Plant' (p.3)
Comoros Ask UNSC Meet To Air French Aggression (p.4)
Editorial: The Traffic Safety Picture

Feb. 2 (Monday)
U.N. Envoy to Arrange Spanish Sahara Choice (p.11)
Quintuplets Born, Doing Fine (p. 11)
Sapporo Snow Festival Gets Under Way; Vandal Arrested (p.12)
Reagan Beating Ford in Poll Funds (p. 13)
'MPLA Has Made Major Gains' (p.14)
IEA Proposes $7 a Barrel Floor Price on Imported Oil (p. 15)
Montreal Assures Games to Be Held (p. 18)
Editorial: Debate on the Lynching Case

Feb. 3 (Tuesday)
Japan Can Unilaterally Declare 12-Mile Limit (p. 23)
Russia Accuses Ford, Kissinger of Making False Angola Reports (p. 23)
34 State Universities Begin Taking Student Applications (p. 24)
Haneda ATC Enters Computer Age (p.24)
Moynihan Tops Best Dressed List (p. 25)
Rumsfeld Is Against Cuts In the U.S. Military Budget (p. 26)
Gov't Will Abolish Low Silk Tariffs (p. 27)
Editorial: U.S.-Soviet Arms Race

Feb. 4 (Wednesday)
U.S. Has Lost Control Over Sea of Japan, Admiral Says (p. 35)
Moynihan Resigns His Post As U.S. Ambassador to U.N. (p. 35)
Red Dye No. 2 Will Likely Disappear From Japan Mart (p. 36)
10,000 Soviet Agents Said to Be in West Germany (p. 37)
China Congress Body Said Planning Important Meeting (p. 38)
Calif. Town Wages Whaling War (p. 39)
Editorial: Penalties for Illegal Strike

Feb. 5 (Thursday)
U.S. Will Never Tolerate Another Angola: Kissinger (p. 47)
Winter Olympics Open Under Tight Security (p. 47)
Political Strife Brewing Up Over 'Shunin' Post System (p. 48)
Ford Disagrees With 1973 Abortion Ruling (p. 49)
Concorde Airliner's Future Depending on Coleman's Verdict (p. 51)
Brazilian Minister Seeks Japan's Aid for Power Plants (p. 52)
Editorial: Straw in the Wind for Sea Law

Feb. 6 (Friday)
Lockheed Paid Kodama $7 Million to Win Deal (p. 59)
2,000 Said Killed in Guatemala Earthquake (p. 59)
U.S. Okays Concorde Flights for Trial Period (p. 59)
Nixon Said Behind ANA Move to Buy TriStars (p. 60)
Argentine Warship Fires Over U.K. Research Vessel (p.61)
French, Somali Forces Clash After Kids Saved (p. 62)
U.K. Eyes SST Talks With U.S. (p. 63)
Editorials: XIIth Winter Games Under Way
Bleak Prospects for Local Initiative

Feb. 7 (Saturday)
Miki Promises to Find Out Truth About Payoff Scandal (p. 71)
Japan Remains Flexible On Export of Arms (p. 71)
Unemployed Top 1 million In December, Still Rising (p. 72)
New Sub-Atomic Particle Found (p. 73)
French Boy Becomes Political Hostage of FLCS Guerrillas (p. 74)
British Airways'Concorde Service to U.S. Seen in May (p. 75)
Editorials: Lockheed Disclosures
And Now It's Shopping Malls

Feb. 8 (Sunday)
Lockheed Bribed Many Foreign Gov't Officials (p. 83)
Marubini Execs, Osano Deny Lockheed Testimony (p. 83)
China Appoints Hua As 'Acting' Premier (p. 83)
Gov. Kubo, Mayor Tsuji Get Gov't Bid on Mutsu Repairs (p. 84)
200-Mile Trend Poses Problems; Sea Law Envoy Fujisaki Explains (p. 85)
Severe Quake Aftershocks Spread Panic in Guatemala (p. 87)
Editorials: Pity the Elite
Mr. Takahashi Makes Exit

Feb. 9 (Monday)
French Reds Abandon Dictatorship Objective (p. 95)
'Marubeni Execs Inked 6 Unknown Receipts' (p. 95)
62,080 Fires in 1975 Kill 1,672, Hurt 8,186 (p. 96)
Nobody Wants to Be Japan's 1st Lady Envoy (p. 96)
Nixon's China Visit Private: Ford (p. 97)
North Sea Oil Hunt Too Costly, Arabs Say (p. 98)
Editorial: Debate on Export of Weapons

Feb. 10 (Tuesday)
Witnesses Will Be Called to Diet Probe of Lockheed Affair (p. 107)
Bernhard Identified In Lockheed Bribe Case (p. 107)
MPLA Claims Capital of UNITA Captured (p. 107)
Kodama Whereabouts Remains Mystery (p. 108)
N-Power Plant Safety Scare Gains Momentum in U.S. (p. 108)
Four Jordanian Ministers Replaced in Reshuffling (p. 111)
Editorial: Moynihan Mirrored U.S. Mood
Tenrikyo Observes 90th Anniversary of Its Foundress

Feb. 11 (Wednesday)
Diet Appearance by Tanaka Over P3C Issue Demanded (p. 123)
Kotchian Refuses to Provide Names (p. 123)
215,000 Seeking Admission to 34 Universities (p. 124)
Nixon Remark on N-Holocaust 'Not Threat' but Scared Hearers (p. 125)
Bonn Socialist Magazine Lists 10 More CIA Agents (p. 126)
3-Man Dutch Board to Check Report Prince Received Bribe (p. 127)
Editorial: Chinese Leadership Puzzle

Feb. 12 (Thursday)
Church Unable to Provide Names of Bribe Receivers (p. 135)
Grumman Admits Paying $6 Mil. To Agents in Iran for Jet Sales (p. 135)
¥422 Millon Suit Filed by 33 Tama River Flood Victims (p. 136)
Ford Inks Defense Money Bill (p. 138)
Transcript of Proceedings at Lockheed Hearings (p.141)
Editorial: Recession and Mergers

Feb. 13 (Friday)
Senate Body May Hand Over Copies of Payoff Receipts (p. 149)
UNITA Hg Town, Two Cities Conquered by MPLA Troops (p. 149)
Kodama Got ¥50 Million a Year (p. 150)
Smoking Among U.S. Teen Girls Is Rising (p. 151)
Bush Orders Journalists Removed From CIA Payroll (p. 152)
Argentine Situation Tense; Army Colonel Assassinated (p. 153)
Editorial: Civil Law Revisions

Feb. 14 (Saturday)
Kodama Seems Likely to Escape Grilling in Diet Bribery Hearings (p. 161)
Kissinger Raps Leaked Intelligence Reports (p. 161)
Rightists' Cables to U.S. Threatening, Police Say (p. 162)
Campaign Against Teng Seen at Peking University (p. 163)
Healthy Growth Seen In Japanese Economy (p. 165)
Minutes of Senate Hearing on Lockheed Case (p. 167)
Editorial: Phase II for Lockheed Affair

Feb. 15 (Sunday)
Kodama Tried to Help Sell Naval Planes, Too (p. 175)
Haughton, Kotchian of Lockheed Resign (p. 175)
Red Dye No. 2 Might Not Be Banned Here (p. 176)
Tass Denies Reports of Clash On Russian-Chinese Border (p. 177)
Olympics Would Be Dead Without Commercialism (p. 179)
Editorials: 'Water, Water Everywhere . . .'
The Harvard Belly Dance

Feb. 16 (Monday)
Diet Probe Into Bribery Scandal Opens Today (p. 185)
Tenneco Inc. Admits Illegal Payments Made (p. 185)
Pill Can Damage Brain Vessels: Dr. (p. 186)
Greece to Allow U.S. 4 Bases (p. 187)
Coalition Proposed in Portugal (p. 188)
Editorial: Union's Plan to Rebuild JNR

Feb. 17 (Tuesday)
Osano Denies Part in TriStar Deal (p. 197)
ANA Execs Tell Press New Facts (p. 197)
Mrs. Ogata Will Be Named to U.N. Mission (p. 198)
Amin Claims Parts of Kenya, Sudan Belong to Ugandans (p. 199)
Partial Transcript of Hearing (p. 200)
Italy Looks to EEC for Help In Reopening Exchange Marts (p. 202)
Innsbruck Games Close; Next Site Lake Placid (p. 206)
Editorial: Contest 'Decided' in Angola

Feb. 18 (Wednesday)
Marubeni Execs Deny Urging Bribes (p. 209)
Okubo, Itoh Resign Over Scandal (p. 209)
Soviet Body to Check Sea Contamination Set Up (p. 210)
Beirut Jewish Area Sealed Off As Kurds, Christians Clash (p. 211)
Partial Transcript of Hearing (p. 212)
Japan Gives Morocco ¥3,000 Million Credit (p. 213)
Wajima Fells Yuh in 15th to Regain World Crown (p. 220)
Editorial: Australian Ties Looking Up
Look Out for Money Glut
Hong Kong Economy Comes Out a Winner

Feb. 19 (Thursday)
Ford Bares New Setup For Foreign Intelligence (p. 223)
U.S. Again Requested to Disclose All Names (p. 223)
Tokyo Bank Robber Nabbed; 1 Policeman Killed, 1 Injured (p.223)
Full-Dress Probe Initiated Into Payoff Scandal Case (p. 224)
Nixon Is Criticized For Pending China Trip (p. 225)
Meet on Soviet Jews' Plight Opens (p. 226)
Editorials: Stonewalled Diet Hearings
Challenges for Mr. Sawada

Feb. 20 (Friday)
Premier Plans to Reveal All, Including Names, If U.S. Provides Them (p. 235)
Proxmire Wants All Lockheed Names Told (p. 235)
Court Rules Authorities Liable for Daito Flood (p. 236)
1,000 Art Works Stolen in Russia (p. 237)
Mrs. Peron Refuses to Quit But Won't Seek New Term (p. 239)
Wheat-Growing Areas Stocks Same: IWC (p. 240)
Editorial: Onus on the Executive Branch

Feb. 21 (Saturday)
Senate Body Will Seek More Lockheed Case Information (p. 247)
Iceland Breaks Off Relations With U.K. Over Fishing 'War' (p. 247)
Ford Revokes Order That Confined Japanese-Americans (p. 249)
U.N. Post Accepted by Scranton (p. 249)
Senate Backs Ford's Veto of U.S. Public Works Bill (p. 251)
U.S. Shows 4.9% Rise In 4th Quarter GNP (p. 252)
Editorials: ASEAN Prepares Summit
From Innsbruck to Montreal

Feb. 22 (Sunday)
Boeing Ordered to Submit Any Data on Alien Payoffs (p. 259)
Nixon Arrives in Peking (p. 259)
Law, Tax Authorities OK Joint Probe Into Business of Kodama (p. 260)
D.C. Adopts New N-Export Curbs (p. 261)
Threatened With Death For Testifying, Patty Says (p. 261)
Government Control of Vibration Sought (p. 262)
Ali Hammers Coopman For 5th-Round Knockout (p. 266)
Editorials: Why Do Buildings Burn?
Technology in the Sky

Feb. 23 (Monday)
Compromise May Help Resume Diet Business (p. 269)
Portugal Recognizes MPLA Government (p. 269)
JAL Hopes to Link Narita, City With 'Floating' Train (p. 270)
Strongest Steel Ever Announced by Scientists (p. 271)
Tanzania, Zambia Hold Talks On Future of Southern Africa (p. 272)
Last U.S. War Dead Taken From Saigon (p. 272)
Editorial: Doubts About Mr. Miki's Resolve

Feb. 24 (Tuesday)
First ASEAN Summit Opens in Bali With Calls For More Cooperation (p. 281)
'Insame' Leads Embassy Seizure (p. 281)
Japan, U.S. Sign Accord On Research Into N-Safety (p. 282)
Peking Military Unit Joins Campaign Against 'Rightists' (p. 283)
Democratic Primary Rivals Share Campaign Platforms (p. 284)
Angloa Rebels Killed 700 Civilians (p. 285)
Editorial: West Europe's Communists

Feb. 25 (Wednesday)
Authorities Launch Raids For Lockheed Evidence (p. 293)
5 S.E. Asian Leaders Sign Treaty to Settle Disputes (p. 293)
MPS Looks Into Seized Papers; Foreign Exchange 1st Priority (p. 294)
Marubeni Lands In Trouble Again (p. 294)
Newsman Schorr Suspended by CBS (p. 295)
New Hampshire Campaign Finished, Now the Vote (p. 295)
Pakistan Wants to Buy French Nuclear Processing Facility (p. 296)
Gov't Arms Export Guideline Extended (p. 297)
N.Y. State Body OK's SST Ban (p. 298)
Editorial: Keep Up Exam Reform Effort

Feb. 26 (Thursday)
Ford Just Beats Reagan In N.H. Primary Contest (p. 309)
Senate Grants C'wealth Status to N. Marianas (p. 309)
240 Student Rioters Protest Opening of Narita Airport (p. 310)
7 Nations Said to Have OK'd Strict Export of N-Materials (p. 311)
Gamimusho Admits Talks On N-Measures Held (p. 313)
Italy Will Reopen Foreign Exchange Markets Monday (p. 314)
Editorial: Nixon and Peking Power Game

Feb. 27 (Friday)
Japan May Consult With U.S. Before Publishing Names of Gov't Officials (p. 321)
Prosecutors Start Grilling Kodama Aides on Tax Evasion (p. 322)
Joyo Cooling System Test Set to Begin (p. 323)
U.S. Will Limit Arms Sales to Egypt: Israel (p. 323)
Mrs. Peron Resists Ouster Attempts, Opponents Stymied (p. 324)
Russia Is Stronger: Scientist (p. 325)
Editorial: Soviets Outline Global Posture

Feb. 28 (Saturday)
U.S. Gov't Said to Have 'Substantial Information' On Japan Lockheed Case (p. 333)
Gov't Bares Tougher Arms Sales Guideline (p. 333)
Tokyo Tax Bureau Grills Kodama's Aides, Friends (p. 334)
U.S. Sends Doctor to Examine Personnel in Moscow Embassy (p. 335)
Seven Airline Offices Inspected for 'Dumping' (p. 336)
Japan OK's IEA $7-a-Barrel Floor Price for Imported Oil (p. 337)
SST Services to U.S. Planned on April 10 (p. 338)
Editorials: ASEAN Summit Pledges Unity
February 29

Feb. 29 (Sunday)
Kotchian Says He's Not Able to Testify Before Diet (p. 347)
No More TriStars, ANA Hints in Letter (p. 347)
Most Powerful Magnetic Field to Date Is Produced (p. 348)
Government Report Indicates U.S. Cancer Rate Doubled (p. 349)
Italy Communist Chief Calls For 'Own Way' at USSR Meet (p. 350)
Editorial: U.N.'s Habitat Day